

Success is measured

ONE STEP AT A TIME

I hold myself to the highest standards. And believe in my ability to make a difference—one day at a time. As an employee of Kaiser Permanente, I have the freedom to put these beliefs into practice. Here, I have the resources and support I need to realize my potential. If you believe professional empowerment leads to personal satisfaction, this is the place to put your beliefs into practice. We have the following full-time position in Sacramento, California:

RESPIRATORY CARE PRACTITIONER II, SLEEP LAB

In this role, you will assume the primary clinical responsibility for all respiratory care modalities in the Sleep Lab. You will exercise considerable independent clinical judgment in the respiratory care of patients within the Sleep Lab.

The ideal candidate will possess a minimum of one year of clinical experience in neonatal/pediatric respiratory care in the field of polysomnography. In addition, a minimum of three years of licensed respiratory care practitioner experience is required.
